

Dr. DePuy reports that Frank Plinski, the boy who was shot in the knee, is doing well at the city hospital and will probably have the use of his limb, some of the smaller cords being saved and these will develop.—

Capital.