

Mrs. John Simpson who resides four miles north of Wimbledon had one of her eyes gouged out on Wednesday while attending to her household duties. She was standing on a chair and, losing her balance, fell to the floor. The nozzle of an oil can standing near penetrated her eye taking it entirely out and inflicting other injuries. She has been taken to Fargo for surgical treatment.