

PLEASANTVIEW NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Turner entertained friends Friday evening.

George Carlson and Oscar Legvould left for Minot on Wednesday to prove up on their claims.

Carl Northerners who has been working the past season for M. A. Turner left for Fooston on Saturday.

Miss Mary Torpin left on Wednesday for her home at Osseo, Wisconsin, where she will reside this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bemis went to Jamestown on Thursday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Wesley Burdick.

These cold breezy zephyrs remind us that the palmy days of winter are not far distant and make us wonder what we did with our last summer's wages.

John Bradford and family passed like a fleeting shadow through this vicinity on Friday evening. The people in this neck of the woods like to have them come up and make a visit.

Mrs Deliak Burdict one of the pioneers of Stutsman county, died at Newton, Wisconsin. She was brought to Jamestown for burial and was interred in the Jamestown cemetery on October 28th. She was a sister of W. W. Bemis of this vicinity. She leaves an aged husband, a son and daughter to mourn her loss.

Miss Minnie McBride of Ontario, Canada, has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Turner the past week. She left on Monday for Buffalo, New York, where she will take up her profession as nurse. Miss McBride is a graduate of the Minneapolis City Hospital, but she finds North Dakota too healthy a place for her profession.
