

Miss Jennie Durkee, a sister of James B. Durkee, died recently in the hospital at Madison, Wisconsin, after an operation for appendicitis. She was the youngest daughter of the family and was nineteen years of age. Miss Durkee was an accomplished lady and the sympathy of a host of friends in Courtenay is extended to Mr. Durkee in the loss of his sister.