

Charles E. Hoffman died on Wednesday after several years of continuous suffering. He had his back broken in a runaway accident and since then he has been unable to walk or take care of himself. We have been unable to gather sufficient facts from which to prepare an obituary notice and the same will appear next week. The funeral was held this afternoon from the Presbyterian church.