

Herman Johnson who resided sixteen miles north of Courtenay died on Tuesday of this week at 11 o'clock at the age of seventy. He had been sick for some time and for the past month had not eaten much of anything and the trouble seemed to be in his stomach. The funeral was held yesterday and the remains were interred in the Norwegian cemetery on the Hans O. Lien farm.