

Mrs. Mary Kelly died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Andrew Blewett of Jamestown on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the age of 87 years. Death was due to heart trouble with which she had been afflicted for the past two years. She had resided with her daughter for the past fourteen years, coming there after the death of her husband in Wisconsin. The remains were taken to Wisconsin for burial.