Frank Robertson, one of the old timers of this county in the vicinity of Jamestown, died on Wednesday of this week. Mr. Robertson was about forty-five years of age and a highly respected citizen.