

Comrade J. W. See of Jamestown passed to the great beyond while at the Soldiers' Home at Lisbon where he had been receiving treatment. His affliction was paralysis and for some time he had felt the disease creeping closer to the vital spot. He is an old resident of the county, having lived at Jamestown for the past fifteen years. Mr. See was an old soldier and saw duty during the war of the Rebellion and it was here that he received the injuries which finally developed into paralysis and caused his death. The remains were taken to Jamestown for burial and interment took place on Tuesday of this week.
