

Injuries Proved Fatal

Mike Stritzel residing near Spiritwood lake, died Monday morning as a result of injuries received, while trying to hold a runaway team. The accident occurred last Friday. Mr. Stritzel was driving a team near the Anton Fried farm. While going down a hill one of the traces became unhitched and the wagon tongue dropped down. In trying to stop the frightened horses Mr. Stritzel was dragged over the front of the wagon and fell behind the horses feet. He received internal injuries from which recovery was impossible. Deceased was 60 years old and leaves a wife and several children.

The burial occurred Wednesday morning from the Catholic church in the Polish settlement north of Jamestown.—Alert.
