
“Swing dem gates wide open Gabriel
Peter,

Pound the tom-tom, ring the bell,”

This is the kind of song Auditor Melgard sang as he tripped down the street Tuesday evening. The cause of this burst of exuberance was the arrival of another son at his home on that day. The auditor now has three of a kind and it is a hand that will almost stand “pat” in almost any game. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Melgard.
