

At the commencement of the last term of school, Mrs. Carleton organized two clubs in her department of Cooperstown school, one of girls and the other of boys. The girls were not to use slang and the boys not to swear. The ones who kept the pledge received a prize. Out of thirty-two girls only ten received prizes and out of twenty-three boys, only four were successful. The following are the names: Annie Johnson, Mary Johnson, Nellie M'Clure, Nor Greenland, Gertrude Quamme, Josi Anderson, Alice Jameson, Maggie Johnson, Helga Hammer, Leila Spangenberg, Winfield Virgo, Everett McClure, Angyal Greenland, Andrew Johnson.
