
July Fourth at Lee.

Do not forget to go to the celebration at N. C. Rukke's. Hon. M. N. Johnson, of Lakota, has been invited to speak and other silvery tongued orators, including S. Almklov, of Cooperstown, will be present. Dr. Kerr, of Cooperstown, will read the Declaration of Independence. There will be foot and horse races, base ball match, basket picnic, and grand bowery dalance in the evening. The usual lemonade stands, peanut, orange and candy stands will be there and a rip-roaring Fourth of July celebration on a miniature scale is promised. Nelson county will celebrate with Griggs this year.
