

---

We regret to learn that on Monday Clerk of Court O. D. Purinton accidentally split his foot with an ax. He went to the court house the same day and got his foot cold and during Monday night his foot pained him intensely. He is doing well under the circumstances.

---