

Dec. 31 was the most solemn and sad day of 1889 at the home of our postmaster, A. T. Anderson. At 11 a. m. a host of friends and relatives gathered to pay the last respects to their daughter, who was buried near the school house on the old folks homestead. The funeral services, which were held in the school house, were conducted by Rev. Sifton of Valley City.

... the steel buyers of