

OBITUARY.

Died—Friday night, Sept. 28th, 1890, of inflammation of the lungs, produced by surgical operations, Charles A. L. Haskell, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Haskell, of Cooperstown, at the age of 3 years, 3 months and 15 days.

“Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted.”

The above sad intelligence was conveyed by telegram last Friday night by Mrs. Haskell to her husband and family. The circumstances which have been connected with this case are particularly sad. Some nineteen months ago, when little Charlie was a bright little fellow, just toddling around, he went
