

Another Soldier Gone to His last Resting Place.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of another resident of Cooperstown. Mr. J. L. Haskell who has for several years been a sufferer from the effects of a paralytic stroke, one week ago was taken ill with la grippe, and in his weakened condition it soon brought him to the door of death. He heard the last roll call last Sabbath at 3 o'clock p. m.

The funeral procession left his late residence on Tuesday 22nd, at 2 p. m. It was his wish that Rev. O. D. Purinton Chaplain of the Cooperstown G. A. R. Post and also an old soldier should conduct the last sad rites, but illness prevented his doing so. Rev. Geo. R. Searles was then called on. The services were held in the Baptist church and throughout were very impressive. After the G. A. R. services a very appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Searles. The procession started for the cemetery at 3:30. The pall bearers were: Messrs. B. B. Brown, G. Stork, J. Young, Chas. Johnson, G. W. Bowe, and Rev. O. D. Purinton.

The deceased moved from his home in Maine in '82. After remaining in Minnesota six months he came to Dakota where he remained until his death. He served throughout the whole war with the 14th regiment Co. A, from Maine.

Mrs. Haskell and his sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.
