

---

The little four year old son of Peter Johnson died last night of malignant diphtheria. He had been sick for several days. The parents have the sympathy of the community.

---