

---

Quite a surprise was sprung on the people this week when it leaked out that Andrew Reite and Miss Othilie Johnson had been quietly married at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon. The affair was kept very quiet and of course created considerable surprise when it became known. The young couple will reside for the present with Mr. and Mrs. S. Almklov. We offer the usual congratulations with the hope that prosperity and happiness will attend them through life.