

---

Mrs. Anna Brakke, living twenty-two miles northeast of town, broke her arm just below the elbow Sunday night. She was jumping from a buggy with a baby in her arms and slipped breaking her arm. She came to town Monday morning and the fractured bones were set by Dr. Wanner.

---