

---

Nels Kjos, who for four months has been confined to his room with a broken leg, has so far recovered as to be around again, and went to his home north of town Saturday. We wish Nels good luck and no further accidents.

---