

---

We dropped in to see Peter E. Nelson Monday and asked him what he had to say about politics. In reply he said: "Have a cigar, I don't know much about politics, but I do know that we have another fine baby girl up at our house." The little girl was born Sunday evening. Congratulations are in order.

---