

We had noticed for the past two weeks that Dick Blow was doing some extra running around and that he wore a very mysterious air, the whole matter was fully explained last Monday evening, Dec. 14th, when we were told that Richard S. Blow and Miss Lena Hagen were married by Rev. Oscar D. Purinton. Dick and his bride have a large circle of friends who wish them much joy and happiness. The newly married couple have settled down to house-keeping in the rooms over Hammer & Condy's meat market. Dick will continue to drive one of Magnate Flynn's fine dray teams and will look after the business in his usual hustling way.
