

---

Fire last Wednesday night destroyed a large barn on Major J. D. Black's farm, nine miles southwest of Valley City. A crew of threshers were sleeping in the barn at the time, and one of them was burned to death together with 17 head of horses. The dead man's name is not known as he had just joined the crew. The barn was insured for $800.

---