

---

Bob Clendening, of Moorhead, had an exciting experience Sunday afternoon on Broadway, Fargo. He was riding his wheel and at Sabin's corner ran into a horse being driven to a buggy. He fell directly under the animal and his wheel rolled off to one side. The horse was badly frightened and began to jump up and down. It looked every moment as if Clendening would be seriously injured but he crawled out almost unhurt.

---