

---

Chris Johnson, of Romness, had his left thumb shot off by an accident last Tuesday. We understand that when he was putting the gun away to its place, some way or other it dropped down and the charge went off with the above result. Dr. Platou dressed the hand.

---