

---

While throwing off the belt of his wood saw last Saturday afternoon, Will Robinson slipped somehow or other, and his hand came in contact with the running saw and as a consequence one finger was entirely cut off, another one partly cut off and two others scratched badly. Dr. Kerr dressed the hand. It is a hard knock for Mr. Robinson for besides losing his fingers he will be knocked out of work for some time.

---