

---

William Henry Boyd, the nine year old son of R. W. Boyd, who lives about eighteen miles northwest of Cooperstown, died Monday morning from pneumonia. The little fellow caught cold while coming to Cooperstown on the train which turned to pneumonia. Rev. B. A. Burns, pastor of the M. E. church, officiated at the funeral, which occurred Tuesday afternoon at the farm residence.

---