

Mrs. S. H. Bustrack died last Sunday from cancer. The deceased had been suffering from this cancer for a long time. It first made its appearance on her tongue and about a year ago she went down to St. Paul and had an operation performed, which was evidently unsuccessful in eradicating the cancer. The funeral occurred at the farm Wednesday.

---