

DIED,—at her home, six miles southeast of Cooperstown, on Saturday, Oct. 23, 1897, Mrs. May Gilbertson, at the age of 26 years, leaving a husband and four little children to mourn the loss of a kind and tender wife and mother. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. Ole Hagen, who died last March, and a sister of Mrs. Lon Sicklesteele, Mrs. Harry Blow, of Elliston, Mont., Mrs. Richard Blow, and the Misses Caroline and Sarah Hagen, of Gallatin. The funeral took place on the 25th. A large concourse of relatives and friends were present, and the procession was the longest seen in these parts. Mrs. Fecker and daughter, Miss Tillie Stangeland (aunt and cousin of deceased), Iver Thompson and Andrew Fecker, from Goose River, came up to witness the last sad rites. Rev. O. K. Quamme and Rev. Edwards delivered the funeral sermon. Mrs. Gilbertson was much loved and respected by all who knew her. A great host of friends mourn her departure and sympathize with her family in their sad bereavement.
