

Happily Wedded.

A pleasant home wedding took place at the elegant farm residence of Hon. W. T. McCulloch, of Jessie, last Tuesday, August 22d, the contracting parties being Mr. Geo. A. Pratt and Miss Elizabeth McCulloch, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCulloch. Rev. B. A. Burns, of Cooperstown, performed the ceremony which united these young people for life. The happily wedded couple are too well known in Griggs county to need an introduction at our hands. The bride has been a resident of this county for about sixteen years, has a very wide acquaintance and is very much liked and respected by all who know her. The bridegroom is a rising young farmer of this county, of exemplary habits, popular with all and is in every way worthy of his popular bride. Mr. Pratt has a farm a few miles north of town upon which he has built and furnished a home, and where he and his wife have settled down to housekeeping. The Courier wishes them many long and happy years of wedded life.
