

Dr. Winsloe's marriage last Wednesday night was a great surprise to a majority of the people and the Courier scribe just took a tumble to the deal just as the paper went to press. After the wedding the bridal couple, attended by Mr. Sells Bengsen and Miss' Sophia Helgesen hied themselves to Skeoch's restaurant, where a very fine wedding supper had been prepared for the occasion. The genial doctor fed the boys ice-cream, soda water and cigars all the next day. The many friends of Mr. and
