

Lightning struck the house of Mr. Woodman Glaspell Monday morning at 5 o'clock. The bolt struck the chimney demolishing that, and went down through the wall shattering that and passed out through the cellar. Some screen doors were knocked off the house. The lightning passed down the wall within two feet of two of the girls who were lying in bed. No one was hurt but it kind of rattled the folks for a few minutes.