

Charley Stermer froze the toes on his right foot last fall and had to have two of his toes amputated, but this did not help matters very much as blood poisoning set in and he came to town last week and had Dr. Brimi amputate part of the foot. He is at the Newell House and is a very sick man. He is receiving all the care possible and we hope he will soon recover.