

The telephone exchange is now in operation, the long looked for switchboard arriving last Saturday. Mr. Goff has put in the best kind of instruments and proposes to have things the best he can get.