

much for him, and the end came suddenly. Once more death was a victor; once more a happy home invaded, a loved one taken; once more a soul had taken flight into the great beyond, to meet its creator.

Halvor Arestad was born in Norway June 18th, 1865, coming to this country with his parents when 6 years of age. When 16 years old he came to Coopers-town where he resided until 1895 when he moved to Hannaford to engage in a successful mercantile business. In 1889 he married Alida Arestad who with their three children survive him.

Of a happy genial disposition Mr. Arestad made many friends. Being careful and conservative he enjoyed the confidence of the mercantile world and rapidly built up a large a lucrative business. As a business man and friend his loss will be felt. As a husband and father to those left behind the loss is immeasurable, and irredeemable, but there is a Heavenly Father who cares for the widow and fatherless and in his hands there is comfort and peace that passes understanding.

Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church this place at 11 a. m. Sunday morning. Rev. Burns officiating, and the remains interred at the cemetery at Westley's.

In the shadow of his wings
There is peace, sweet peace.
