

The many friends of Mrs. R. C. Brophy, who resided at Cooperstown at one time will be pained to learn of her death, which occurred August 12th, at Duluth, where she was residing—seeking rest and in the hopes of regaining her usual strength. She was sick but a few days, although she had long suffered with valvular heart trouble. Her husband and five children return to their home at Hinsdale, Ill.