

David Palm is setting up the cigars, and wearing the smile that wont come off, because a hale and hearty, eight-pound girl made her appearance at his home last Friday evening June 6.