

Oliver Larson, son of Albert Larson at Cooperstown, died Saturday morning. He had been suffering for about four years from tuberculosis. About a week ago he returned from Colorado, where he spent the winter. Deceased was about 24 years old.