

Obituary.

Mrs. John L. Miklethun died Saturday, August 17th, at her home in Dover township, after only a few days' illness, leaving a husband, six children and a large number of other relatives to mourn her death in the very noon-day of her life.

Deceased was thirty-four year old July 27, 1912, and was united in marriage to John L. Miklethun, thirteen years ago coming New Years Day. She was a daughter of Lars Pederson, one of the early settlers of Dover township, and has lived her whole life in this county. She was an active member of the Lutheran church, and was the possessor of a kind and helpful disposition.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, August 20th. A large number of friends gathered at the house where a short service was conducted by Rev. Thoreson, after which the solo "It is Well with My Soul" was rendered by Miss Nellie Flewel. At the church, an unusually large number of people had gathered, and friends of the deceased had brought many beautiful floral tributes, which spoke of peace, purity and immortality. Rev. Thoreson held a fitting sermon over the beautiful words from St. John, "In My Father's house there are many mansions." After the sermon the song "Flee as a Bird to the Mountain" was sung by Miss Dorcas Thoreson, and a number of school children under the instruction of Erik Rud sang "Meet Me There."

Interment was made in Eidfjord cemetery with the Lutheran church rites. The pastor spoke briefly in English thanking the people in behalf of the bereaved family for the kindness and sympathy shown them during their great loss.
