

Word has been received here that H. H. Sonju died last Wednesday on the farm of Magnus Roterud near Grassy Lake, Alberta. Mr. Sonju was formerly a resident of Hannaford, but about seven years ago went to Canada and took up a homestead which he proved up, and quite recently sold. For some months he lived in town, but last week when Mr. Roterud came down here. Mr. and Mrs. Sonju moved onto his farm to take care of the place through the winter. Mr. Sonju has been suffering for a number of years with heart trouble, culminating in his death as stated.
