

GASPAR DAVIS NUPTIALS

The beautiful parlor in the Comstock Hotel of Moorhead, Minn., was the scene of a pretty ceremony Wednesday evening when Violet Davis was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Leonard J. Gaspar.

At precisely eight o'clock the bridal party marched into the parlor as Miss Hazel Hutchinson of Fargo played the wedding march from Lohengrin. The bride was attended by her sister Mrs. A. Zimkoski as maid of honor. Mr. Joseph Gaspar, the groom's brother, acted as best man.

The bride was preceded by Aliene Zimkoski, who carried the ring in a bouquet of white American Beauties.

The bridal party took their places under a white canopy arranged for the occasion and after Miss Dena Gaspar sang "O Promise Me," they were united by Rev. Hutchinson of Fargo.

The bride was prettily gowned in white silk crepe de chene trimmed with white fur and white pearl lace. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. Mrs. Zimkoski was gowned in blue silk trimmed with white fur, and carried delicate pink carnations.

After congratulations were received the guests were ushered into the dining room where an elaborate eight course wedding dinner was served. Pink and white formed an effective color scheme in the decorations.

These young people are both well known to Hannaford citizens, Mr. Gaspar being the efficient manager of the Hannaford Creamery, and Miss Davis has been capably filling the duties as night operator at the Great Northern depot. Mr. and Mrs. Gaspar will make their home in Hannaford.

Their numerous friends extend best wishes and congratulations to this young couple.
