

Sentinel-Courier: Iver Hanson, of Sverdrup, arrived home last week from his trip to his birthplace in Denmark. He was away several months and was married while in Denmark. His old friends here were surprised to hear of his taking this step, but all will join in felicitating the happy couple and wishing them much happiness.