

J. N. Johnson, who stole an automobile that he might comply with the demand of his sweetheart that the man she married must be the possessor of an automobile, was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary by Judge C. W. Buttz. Johnson pleaded guilty. He stole the auto at Egeland and took it to Hannaford.