

Henry Nelson, of Dazey, drove into town Thursday evening with his automobile. A horse and buggy belonging to Martin Walum was hitched in front of the hardware store, and Mr. Nelson crashed into it with his car, with disastrous results to the buggy. We understand Mr. Nelson has settled satisfactorily for the damage done, but the incident should be a warning against reckless driving with automobiles on the streets, as human lives are endangered as well as property.

---