

Esther Thoreson was operated on Jan. 27, at the Swedish Hospital in Minneapolis for acute appendicitis. Miss Thoreson has been employed as a nurse in that hospital for the past two years. Rev. Thoreson has been spending the past week with his daughter at the hospital, and according to last reports she is out of danger and improving rapidly.