

Martin Walum had the misfortune to get his leg broken last Saturday evening while helping to hold a colt at Richardson's barn. The leg was broken below the knee, and Mr. Walum will be confined to the house for several days as a result of the injury.