

HOSEA WOODWARD WRITES

Hosea Woodward writes us one of his interesting letters from Rose Glen, N. D., as follows:

The reason i rite i feel it my Duty to Praise up this state of North Dakota i here a good many Kicking & Finding Fault & when i here folks talking like that i Feel like Praying for God to give us thankful Harts to show the Hannaford folks how i have Prospered my Parents were very Pour & i decided to come to America so i left Christiana Norway in 1901 with just enough money to Pay my Baat Passage O i never will furget that day i had some ludafish sandwiches tied up in a red Handkerchief and i landed in McLean Co Busted and to show the Prosperity there is here i have got a Nice Big Farm in a high state of cultivation McLean Co is such a lovely place i often wonder why they didnt have the Garden of Eden here instead of having it away off in the Hoily land.

very sincerely,

Hosea

P S i would rite oftener But it is Hard on my Brane to use so much grammer.
