Jan. 6, '92.—The old year has passed away and with it another year of our lives.

Some of our friends and loved ones have passed away from this earth to a better home, but some are still here and as you enter this New Year may happiness and prosperity attend you all is our sincere wish.

We understand that Rev. W. C. Whisnand preached a splendid New Years sermon at Broadlawn last Sabbath.

Miss Grace Warner has been quite ill with la grippe but is improving.

A stranger arrived at Charlie Williams a short time ago and has come to stay. It is a boy and weighs about nine pounds. Charlie's face is wreathed in smiles—"Cold nights Charlie" to get up barefoot looking for paregoric.

Mr. George Williams returned from California on Dec. 29th. We wonder if he doesn't think this weather is quite a change from the California climate. "There is no place like home is there George."

Miss Eva Pope, of Broadlawn, visited with her aunt and uncle Rev. W. C. Whisnand and wife, the first of the week.

Gus Whisnand, Will Courtney and Miss Lou Brown, of Hope, spent a very pleasant evening at Rev. W. C. Whisnand last Monday.

Miss Eva Pope and Will Courtney returned to Jamestown, on Tuesday, to resume their studies at the Presbyterian College at that place, after spending the holidays very pleasantly with friends and home folks.
