

COLGATE.

Everything is fine, fine weather, fine country, fine class of people, and our town's fine improvements are beginning to show themselves on every corner of the streets.

A new addition to the town's population was made Tuesday, by the arrival of two ladies and one gentleman. They are from Germany and are green to the ways of our country, but will soon ripen beneath the warm rays of our summer sun.

Our farmers are all busy and the hum of machinery sounds in all directions.

H. S. Curry has moved down on his farm near town.

H. Harness has rebuilt on his claim and moved in.

Col. Davie and son Capt. Davie, with many hired men are rustling with might and main, and will put in a large crop this year.

W. H. Furlong reports ten lambs from seven ewes. His flock of 150 sheep will more than double themselves at this rate.

Many of our farmers have gone into sheep raising, among them are Seth Curry, Lorenzo Fromweller and Capt. Petsold, and all report their flocks doing fine.

E. J. Pepper is shipping out the grain from the Cargill elevator.

April 15th, 1891.

Uno.